

Call for Abstracts

New Economic Student Conference

From September 5 to 7, 2024, we are hosting the first economic conference at the University of Siegen specifically aimed at students. Under the theme "Economic Upheavals - Political Interventions," we want to offer our fellow students the opportunity to present their own academic work to an interested audience and gain their first experiences with academic conferences. Therefore, we invite all students in German-speaking countries to submit a contribution for our conference. Possible topics include:

- The Inflation of 2022 and the Interest Rate Reversal: Causes and Consequences
- Effectiveness and Economic Consequences of Climate Policy Measures
- Subsidies and Interventionism in Times of Multiple Crises
- Theoretical Considerations on Transformation and/or Economic Policy
- Economic Historical Examination of Past Upheavals

Submission Guidelines:

The conference is open to students in all undergraduate and graduate programs in economics. Students from related fields (e.g., business law, economic history etc.) are also warmly invited to submit a contribution.

If you would like to contribute, please submit your abstract (max. 1800 characters including spaces) by July 18 through this form.

The abstract should briefly outline the topic, methodology, and results of your contribution. Submissions (and presentations) can be in either German or English, although the conference will primarily be conducted in German. Contributions can also include work of lesser scope (e.g., term papers) or work that is not yet complete.

You can always find the latest information on our website. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact us at studentische_konferenz@wiwi.uni-siegen.de or directly contact the coordinator Sebastian Zachrau (sebastian.zachrau@student.uni-siegen.de).

Participation:

Participation in the conference is possible without your own contribution and is free of charge thanks to our supporters. You can register at this link.

There is a fund available for travel and accommodation costs, from which subsidies can be requested. We would greatly appreciate any donations to this fund.
