

Research Project: Taxation

„The association between Environmental Scores and Corporate

Tax Avoidance: An Analysis of Publicly Listed Companies “

What we expect

- You are registered student in the master's program „Accounting, Auditing & Taxation“
- You have an extraordinary interest in empirical tax research
- You have a basic interest in getting a PhD
- You aim to publish your research project and like to actively accompany the review process

What we offer

- A detailed assistance and a full range of support during the whole research project
- A close cooperation with our Chair of Business Taxation
- An optimal preparation for your empirical master thesis
- A possible publication during your master studies
- If desired, we offer a detailed introduction to the programming language R and actively support your empirical work

Structure of the research project

Duration:

At least 6 month

End of application:

at any time until 01.11.2024

Start:

not later than 01.11.2024

Language:

English

Procedure:

1. Creation of a unique dataset
2. Evaluation of the data
3. Creation of a first draft
4. Submission to a journal

Please apply to:

Mareike.Hockmann @ uni-siegen.de